Five candidates compete for four places on the Executive

A r close of nominations on Saturday, five candidates will now go to the hustings at the AGM to compete for the four Ordinary-Member places on the regional executive for 2012. Each will be allowed two minutes on the platform and each will also be allowed to produce short election addresses to be distributed by e-mail.

Ballot papers will be sent by post to all voting representatives by the end of the week. These need to be returned before noon on the day of the AGM (November 5), which means those attending will be able to listen to the speeches before casting their vote.

The votes will be counted by STV and the results will be declared by Returning Officer Roger Shade before the first afternoon session.

Nominations

Steffan Aquerone

Phil Bennion

Jacki Boyle

Hugh Warner

Paul Wild

NB Ballot papers should be marked NOT with a X but by 1 to 5 according to preferences

The new Executive will nominate the chairs of the Communications Group, the Diversity Group and the Local Parties Committee at its next meeting.
